HAZEN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
RENTON, WASHINGTON VOL.II

SOMEWHERE BETWEEN ANY MAN AND EVERY MAN THERE IS A PLACE CALLED COMMUNITY

This place we call community; where men sometimes love one another and sometimes hate one another; yet they must always depend upon one another

IN SUBURBAN TOWN WHERE NEARLY

everyone commutes to work and gladly flees the every day pressures for moments of quiet relaxation

COMMUNITY IS THAT PLACE . . . WHERE

men draw strength from their interdependence and hope
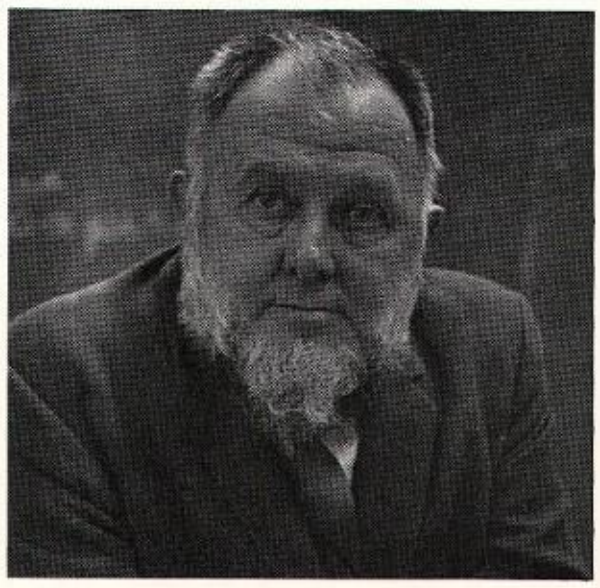
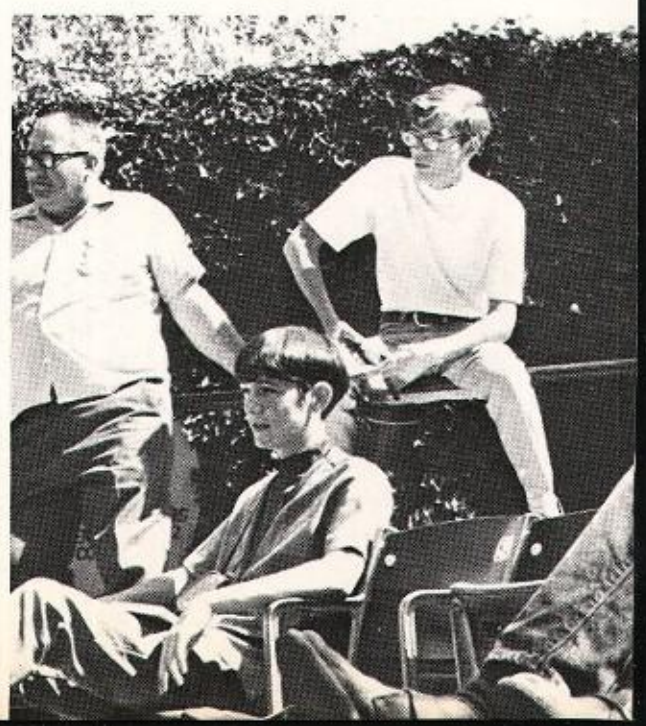
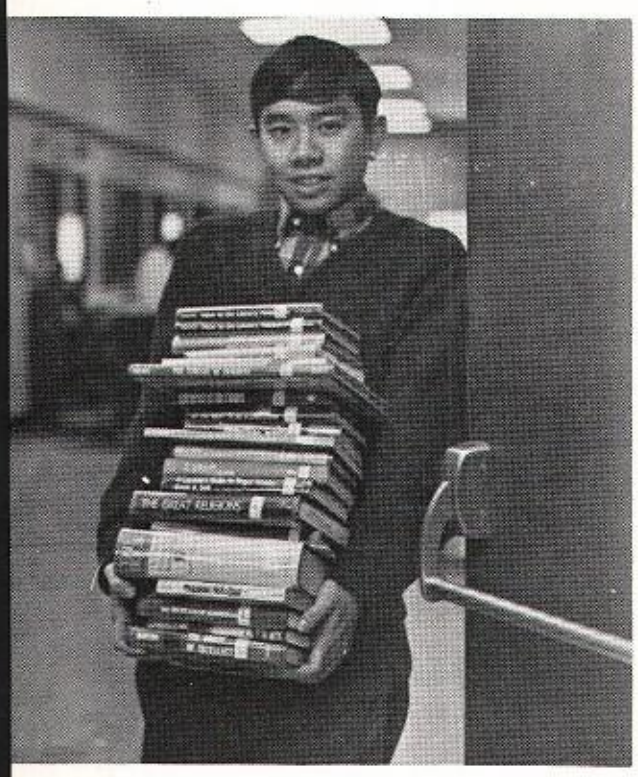
from their humaneness

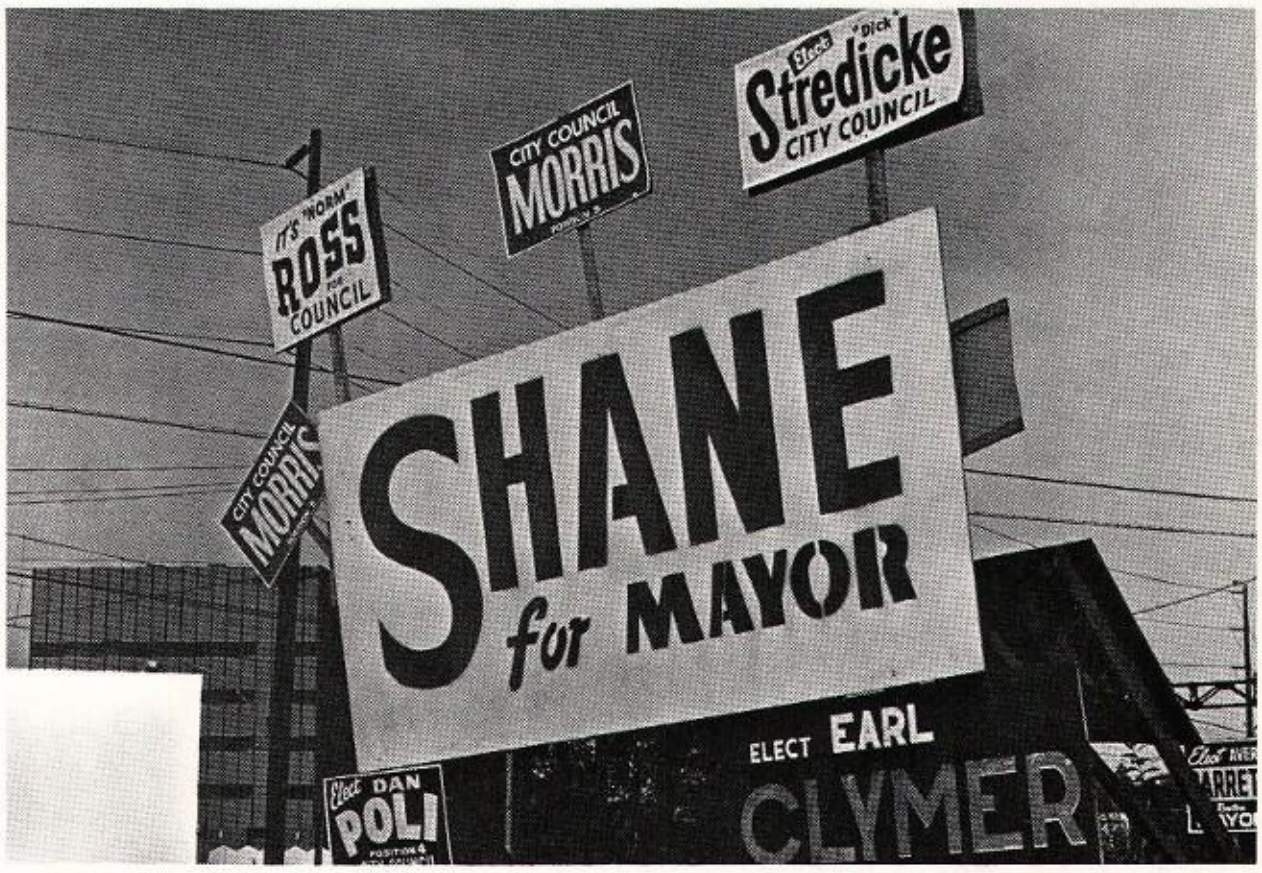
ON THE CAMPUS, WHERE SMALL GROUPS

seek escape from the 8:00 to 2:45 routine, where some isolate themselves, buried in books, in thoughts.









COMMUNITY IS THAT TIME... WHEN

men work apathy into action, turmoil into love, human need into fulfillment

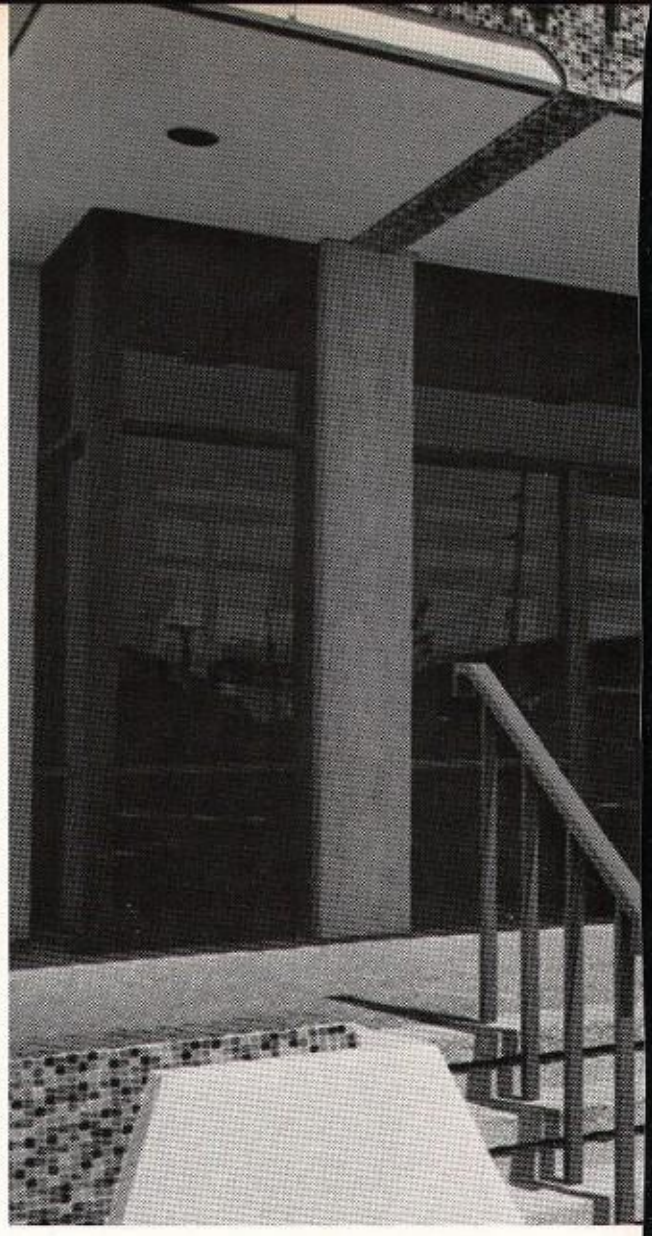
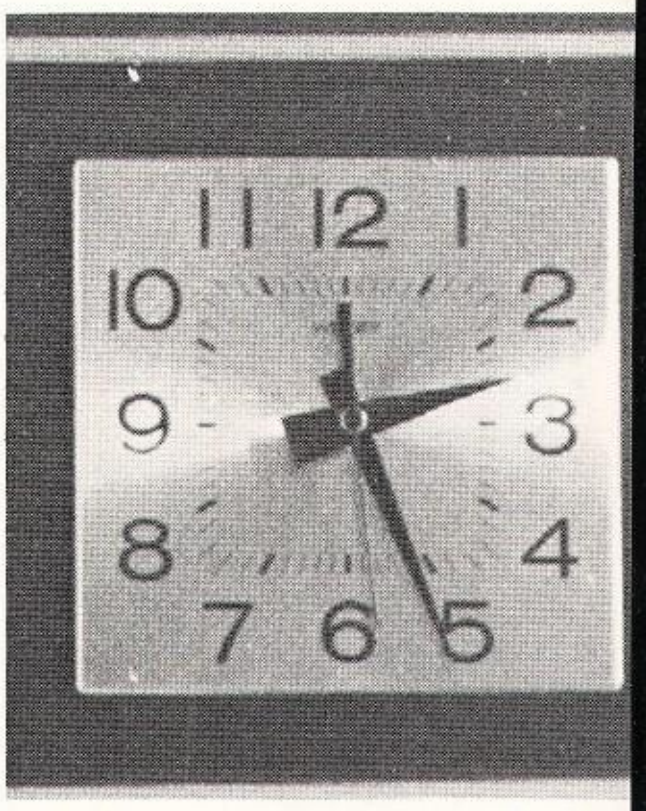
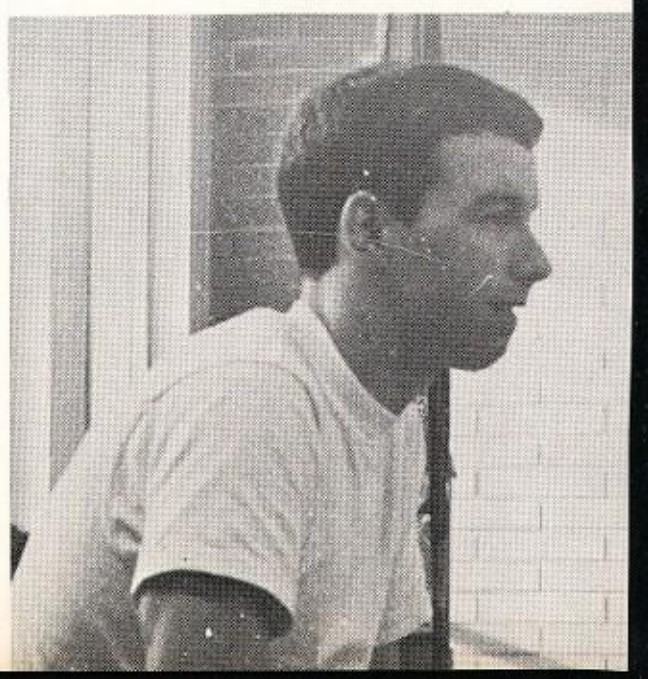
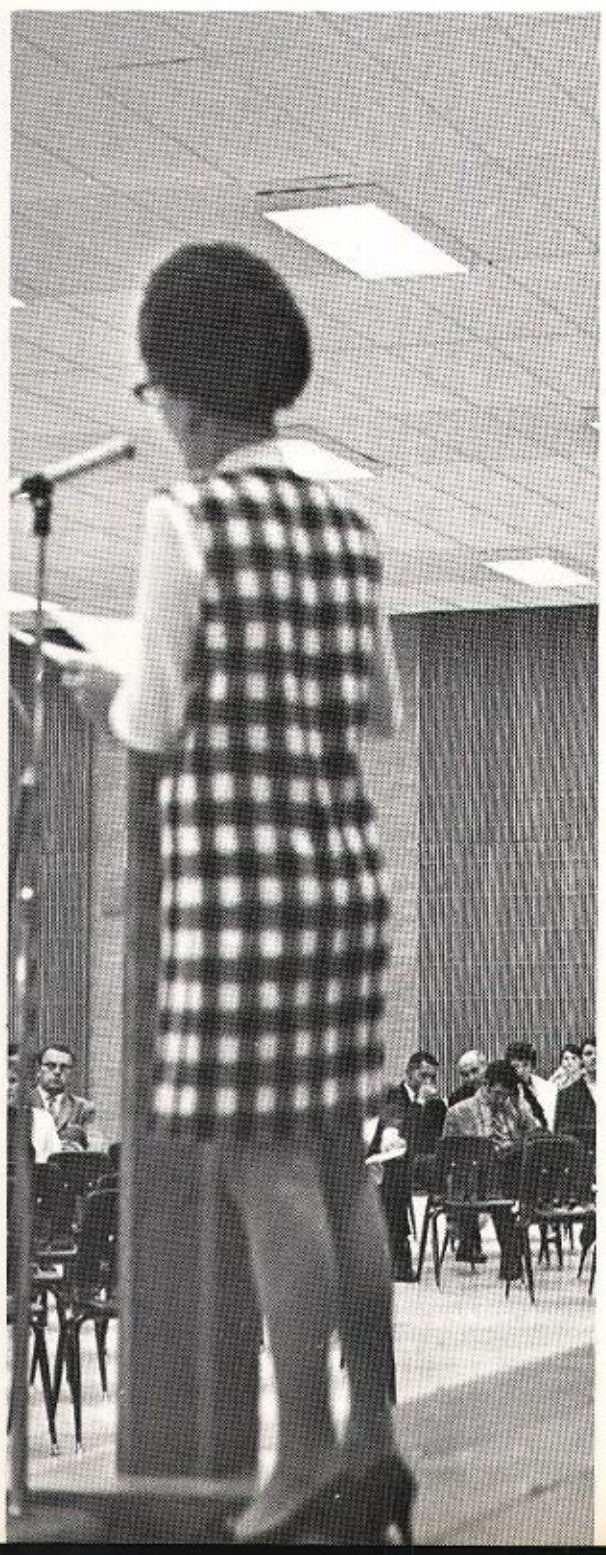
WHILE SOME REACH OUT TO ASSIST

others, where the program for educational growth goes beyond textbook abstractions to come to grips with the realities of the hour









COMMUNITY CALLS OUT TO THE YOUNG

the most daring
among men. Today is your place and your time.

Officers learn responsibilities of leadership

The basis for a successful student program lies generally in the planning of the student leaders of the school SBA President Kevin Green, had the responsibility of leading the Student body at Hazen this past year. Assisting Kevin was Vice President Craig Hanis, Secretary Lorraine Clear, and Historian Carol Knedler, who worked together to accomplish the many tasks confronting the student leaders.

Early in the year, Kevin, Craig, Lorraine, and Carol worked with the Executive Board in formulating plans for future all-league leadership conferences. Their proposal was presented to the Vice Principals Association of Secondary Schools for consideration.

In an attempt to achieve a more effective student government, the SBA again sponsored the Waskowitz Conference. First semester's weekend, November 15 and 16, featured "communication through human relations." Seven qualified instructors were available in addition to the well known speakers, Mr. Magee, from Foster High, and Father Small, from Seattle Prep. As a result of the conference, Senate and homeroom meetings utilized methods of communication to encourage individuals to participate.

The responsibilitites of leadership can be stated in many ways, but the late Robert F. Kennedy summed it up best, perhaps, when he said, "Some men see things as they are and say why; I dream of things that never were, and say-why not?"

Training for leadership stressed involvement.

Involvement was orientation and pep assemblies.

It meant your home-room buying more S.B.A. tickets.

It meant carving the fanciest
pumpkin,

And electing a Junior Princess.

In short, it was finding your thing and doing it.

Girl's and Boy's Club's worked to build friendship among the girls and boys of Hazen High by organizing fun and worthwhile activities throughout the year. This past year, the Girls Club had a car wash, elected girls-of-the month, had a Petticoat Barnyard Ball, a Tolo, a canned food drive, and ended the year with a Mother's Tea.

The Boy's Club was very busy with the money raising car bash, the Hazen-Renton Faculty Game, and the Boy's Club Scholarship Fund.

Girl's Club was led by President, Sue Soliday, Vice-President Toni Cernich and Secretary Shawna Montgomery and were assisted by their cabinet: Karen Hanson, Newsletter Chairman; Carol Eckloff, Historian; Jean Salter, Publicity Chairman; Cheryl Houser, Hostess; Jill Garrison, Friendship; Paula Morgan, Girl-of-the-Month; Annette Holmstrom, Foster Child; Lorretta Bostock and Lynda Carr, Freshman Representatives.

The Boy's Club Cabinet who assisted President, Don Danielson; Vice-President, Harold Hawkins and Secretary, Gary Wieman are Tom Ewing, Bob Barden, Doug Ternet, Dick Gray, Bruce Palmer, Bob Gray, Paul Ernst, Jim Jacobson, and Frank Davidson.

Before leaving for summer vacation last year the HIGHLIFE staff planned a Welcome edition for distribution in home rooms on the opening day of school.

In common with all other activities in the school, HIGHLIFE suffered from severe constriction of the budget.

When school opened a three-week sales campaign resulted in contracts for about $800 in advertising revenue for the year, which was a little more than half of the goal set.

During first semester a production staff of eight published seven issues. When the Journalism I class joined them second semester there was an easing of the work load.

Seven issues were published second semester with the new staff putting out the traditional Club Edition in May and the graduating staff members putting together a gigantic nostalgic blob called the Senior Edition.

"Sometime I think Journalism I and II should be called Beginning and Advanced Cut and Paste."

which sent us out into the community . . .

The spirit of Acappella Choir lies within its mass of ninety-eight voices, from freshmen to seniors. At least one period a day was devoted to rehearsal for such performances as Winter Concert, Spring Concert, and an exchange concert with Wenatchee High School. The Choir counsel consisted of Dave Simmons, President; Jeanne Rothrock, secretary; and section leaders: Jan Thielbar, soprano; Debbie Jacobs, alto; Harold Hawken, tenor; and Ron McClure, bass. Those who considered music a favorite interest, found an opportunity for expression and discovery in the Acappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Harley A. Brumbaugh.

Advanced Girls Glee worked each day toward getting a mature sound and a good blend. For several girls it was a stepping-stone towards the Acappella Choir.

Freshman Girls Glee started the year in a rush, assembling their uniforms which they wore for performances. Both glees, also under the direction of Mr. Brumbaugh, prepared for such performances as Winter Concert, besides furthering their knowledge and experience in the field of music.

Rated number one in the state, the Studio Singers found themselves in the midst of a busy year not the least of which was changing their name from Swing Choir. Achieveing some outstanding goals, the group performed both in school and throughout the community. The members, consisting of seniors, juniors, and one sophomore, spent one period each day rehearsing.

The singers had their own rhythm section: Denise Syjud; piano, Cody Craig; lead guitar, Terry Hiatt; bass, and Mike Combs; drums, who spent their fair share of time plunkin', pickin', and symbol tappin'.

Some of the rehearsals were accompanied by the stage band in preparing their repertoire of songs, which ranged from contemporary pop tunes to the standards of yester-year. The climax of the year came in March when the Studio Singers were selected from all qualifying swing choirs in the state to perform at the Washington Music Educators Convention in Yakima. Their purpose was to demonstrate the versatility of the "swing" choir in a clinic situation. In preparation for the clinic they had the priviledge of working with Stan Forbes, professional studio singer from Los Angeles.

way to Yakima with "#1" on their minds

Newly organized last fall, the Stage Band played pop, rock, jazz, and music from the "Big Band" era. Besides playing at the pep assemblies, the Stage Band participated in music festivals both at home and away.

The Stage Band Evening, which featured the Stage Band, Studio Singers and a Showcase band from the Renton Musical Union, was a noted success. Also close to home, was the Band's performance at the North Puget Sound League Invitational Stage Band Festival held at Kentridge High.

The big event of the year came in March, when the Stage Band journeyed with the Studio Singers to Yakima. There, they performed for the State Music Educators Convention.

The State High School Stage Band Festival at the Olympic College in Bremerton was the last big event for the year.

Composed of eight hard-working members, this year's Orchestra added a note of distinction to the music department.

Because it was so small and contained no winds, it was not a full orchestra but a chamber orchestra. Under the direction of Mr. Gleason, they played both classical and contemporary music.

In December they performed for the first time at the Winter Concert. At this performance, as at all performances, the boys wore suits and the girls wore yellow formals. Nancy Hall, a violinist, was the Concert Mistress.

Through the combined efforts of the members and Mr. Gleason, the Orchestra spent many hours preparing for the spring contest. All had hopes that they would match last year's rating of excellent plus.

This year one of the most active student groups at Hazen was the Concert Band. In the fall, the football games wouldn't have been the same without the band playing and during basketball season they were there for every home game. Pep assemblies were another activity at which the band always appeared. The band wasn't able to show it's true ability, through, until the first concert of the year, which was the Christmas Concert in December. This was followed by the Winter Concert Febraary 12, where the band was able to wear the new uniforms which arrived in late January.

A trip to Victoria was in the plan for spring, and in January a fund-raising dance was held to help pay for the expenses. The officers, Clive Graham, president, Randy Jones, vice president, and Barb Kirkman, secretary, along with the Band Council helped plan activities for fund-raising. Directing the band was Mr. Gleason.

Last row: Mr. Gleason, Jim Jackson, Bob Moer.

For a student to become a member of Hazen's Concert Band, he must first pass the Concert Band Competency Test. Preparing students for this test is the main purpose of Hazen's Cadet Band, according to Mr. Gleason, band director.

Composed mainly of freshman and beginning musicians, the first of the year found Cadet Band with a large population. But by the time second semester rolled around, the band was being depopulated because many of the new musicians were moving on to conquer other things, such as Concert Band. Before so many left, though, the Cadet Band was able to perform at the Christmas Concert, where they demonstrated what they had learned first semester. Their president first semester was Alan Baker, while the rest of the year was spent under the leadership of Jerry Jackson.

The staff of Lonach 1970 began their planning of the publication with their attendance at a yearbook workshop at GRCC campus in April of last year. The theme, number of pages, possible cover designs and various other items that would delay production in September were decided before the staff had seen the results of their first year's effort.

In order to cover costs of a 50% page increase and several other additions to the '70 Lonach, staffers sold over $1200 worth of advertising. Additional fund raising by the staff included a dance early in November, plus the sale of clear plastic covers and an autograph insert. The staff kept alert for opportunities to save on the budget but at the same time improve the quality of the book. The taking of class pictures and organizing the yearbook sales campaign had to be completed before the 25 member staff could hit the nitty gritty of publishing a 192 page annual. As one staff member commented, "You don't know what it's all about until you've met your first deadline."

In addition to hosting the American Yearbook Workshop in September, the staff proudly attended the American Yearbook Workshop in the Spring, where they received the Big "E" award for having met all deadlines.

When Lonach 1970 came out, last year's fantastically successful Signing Party was repeated in the cafeteria by popular request.

Along with the returning staff, there was a unique repeat, that of the Editor. Usually, editing is a Senior position, but as Hazen didn't have Seniors its first year, the Editor title was a two year job for Tom McCombs, who along with his staff had another chance, a chance to benefit from previous mistakes in producing their second edition of the Lonach.

Pep, spirit, and hard work were just a few of the things that made up a Hazen cheerleader. Practice started right after elections in May of 1969. They attended the State Cheerleading Conference in Ellensburg during the summer, using the information gained at the conference to make up cheer and song routines for the year.

A few activities to promote pep and school pride, the main goal for these girls, were sitting on ice to melt Glacier, handing out kisses, taking the football team breakfast, and selling pep pins before each game.

When not practicing they turned out at all events or activities which promoted school pride.

FOOTBALL- First year in varsity competition

The Highlanders, with Coach Don Anderson at the helm, turned in a successful 1969 season. In their first year in the North Puget Sound League, Hazen managed a fifth place, and were never out of a single game all season until the final moments.

To highlight the season was the performance of senior, John Stark, who rushed for over 1000 yards. John received all-conference selection by sports writers of the area. Rounding out this year's starting backfield were seniors, Harold Hawken and Ron DuBois, and juniors, Tim Lambro and Gary Reed. This group progressed steadily during the year and earned themselves rushing champions of the league, grinding out over 2100 yards.

The work-horses of the squad were those unheralded heroes, the line. There is nothing a back would rather see than a gaping hole in the opposing defensive, and starters Tom Ewing, Dan Smith, Don Moerer, Don Danielson, Keith Allen, Ken Walsh, and Rick Moran were instrumental in leading the Highlanders to their team rushing title.

The awards banquet provided many thrills for some very deserving individuals, including elected team captains, Tom Ewing and Don Danielson. Don Moerer won the Most Improved Player Award and the Inspirational Award went to Keith Allen. The recipient of the coveted Elk's Achievement Award was Harold Hawken.

The coaching staff is as follows: Bill Diambre, Cliff Root, Myron Huckle, Head coach Don Anderson, and Don Carlson.

Managers of the football team are: kneeling, Steve Cote and Mike Jeffrey, and standing, Ron Hinze, John Fullenwider, and Steve Crepeau.

Cross Country - A long run up the hill

The Cross Country team climaxed a dual meet record of 3 wins and 8 losses with a sixth place finish in the North Puget Sound League Conference Meet. Hazen's best finish was by a senior transfer from Montana, Pete Adams, who finished in 19th place. he was followed by John Kaufmann, 29th place, Dave Hawley, 32nd place, John Morgan, 35th place, Eric Bowen, 43rd place, Ken Sheets 46th place, and Bo Stinebaugh, 50th place.

Had the harriers been able to finish 5th or better in the Conference, they would have qualified for the West Central District Meet. The Highlanders were unfortunate to be with out the services of last year's captain, Dennis Tyler, who could not compete due to a broken leg.

At the Fall Sports Banquet Junior, John Morgan was honored as being elected team captain by his teamnates. The Inspirational Award went to another junior, John Kaufmann. The Elk's Achievement Award recipient was Eric Bowen.

GOLF

Pride in excellence

Golfing became a more respectable sport this year, as the linksmen split their season, after a disastrous first year with only one victory. The golfers 4-4 record tied them for fifth place in the North Puget Sound League. Guy Clausen, Tom Walther, Rick Jordan, Ken Losek, Randy Jones, and Charlie Hickenbottom received varsity letters. The team elected Tom Walther as next year's captain and voted Rick Jordan as the inspirational winner. Guy Clausen was the recipient of the Elk's Achievement Award and the Most Improved Award.

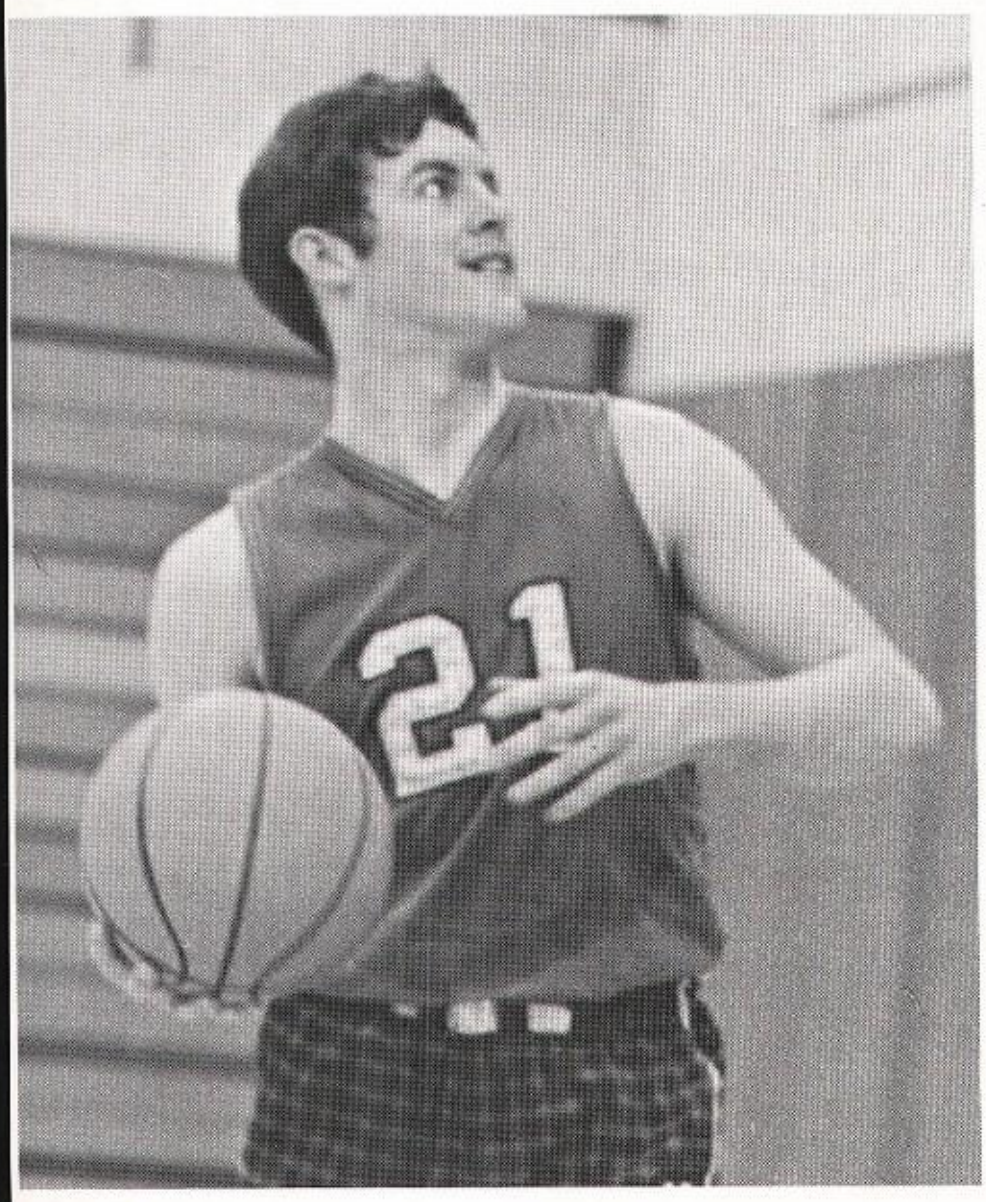
BASKETBALL

Inspiration along with frustration



The cagers began with high hopes to have a successful season, but as the season progressed, their play was sometimes inspired, but more often mediocre.

The cagers seemed to lack a consistency of play, for one game they would play like league champs, and the next they would perform like cellar dwellers.

It was a frustrating year, especially for the senior members of the squad, who were counted on to provide the leadership to be a consistent winner. Game after game, however, the Highlanders seemed to have victory in their grasp, only to lose by scant margins in the final minutes.

The Highlanders have a fine nucleus back next year with six varsity performers returning for another season. Aided by a talented crop of sophomores and freshmen, Coach Huckle has some fine talent to work toward a more rewarding season next year.

Ken Walsh, Captain for this year's squad, eyes the basket.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Success brought promotion

Coach Eric Robert's Junior Varsity team was a little thin on manpower this year, as they finished the season with only eight players. Whenever Coach Roberts got a good performer, it seems he ended up playing for the varsity, while the JV's ended up minus one more body.

The JV games were played at 6:15, right before the varsity tilt. Many fans showed up early to catch a glimpse of future Hazen stars. When the stars weren't out, there was still plenty of hot action.

Who will ever forget when Mark Wolsky dribbled to the other team's goal and made a basket. Even stranger was the time when the JV's finished a losing struggle with only four men, as the rest of the players fouled out.

Nevertheless, the JV's played first rate basketball, and many of this year's JV players will be next year's varsity performers.

SOPHOMORES

Play to small crowds

Guiding the Sophomore and Freshmen teams to their winning ways were Coaches Cliff Donley and Cliff Root.

The Sophomores engaged in a league schedule identical to that of the varsity, but played their games after school before sparse crowds.

The Freshmen games were better attended, thanks to the support of the freshmen and McKnight Middle School. The Frosh played in a league composed of the neighboring junior highs from Renton and Kent.

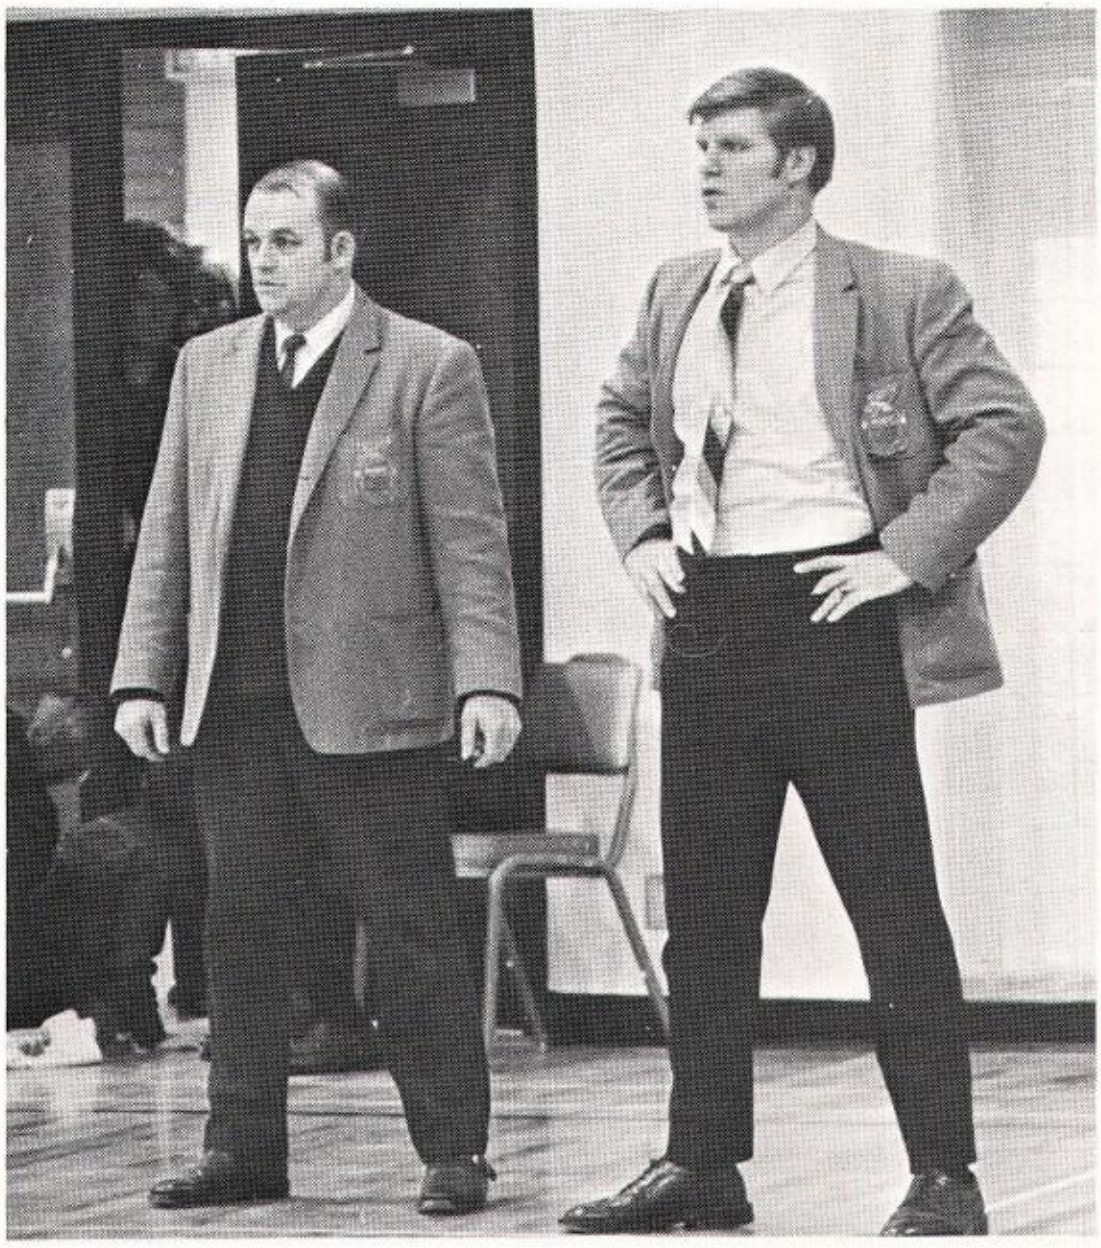
WRESTLING - It's hard to pin down

J.V. Coach Jack Ernst and Head Coach Joe Hauser



The grapplers showed a much improved team over last season, as they won three matches, and were narrowly defeated in several others. The team was hindered by the fact that they didn't have a heavyweight wrestler much of the season.

In post-season competition, Hazen sent eight wrestlers to the sub-district meet, Doug Kuhlman, Tom Nobbs, Tim Nobbs, Gary Kunz, Don Moerer, Mel Fritsvold, Mark Carr, and Harold Hawken.

The highlight of the season was the final evening of the sub-district meet, when Harold Hawken won first place in the 194 weight division of the North Puget Sound League.

Eight wrestlers competed for Hazen in the Sub-District Wrestling Tournament in February. They were Doug Kuhlman, Tom Nobbs, Tim Nobbs, Gary Kunz, Mark Carr, Don Moerer, Mel Fritsvold, and Harold Hawken.

Don Moerer wrestling 141, and Mel Fritsvold wrestling 148, each won fourth place in the North Puget Sound League. Harold Hawken was seeded number two in the 194 weight division and scored three straight victories to earn the number one award for the entire league.

Coaches Eric Roberts and Carol West greeted nine returning letterwinners in March in hopes of a successful season. The returnees were Joe Koshko, Greg Dickey, Mark Robbins, Allen Boggs, Captain Linda Luft, Chris Morgan, JoAnn Sullivan, RaeAnn Sullivan, and Liz Pressly. Newcommers from the J.V. were Dirk Crump and Katy Gray.

The format for the matches was slightly changed this year, with the addition of one singles match for both the boys and the girls, which allowed more people to participate in the tennis program.

SWIMMERS

Work to beat own records

This year's swim team started out with more going for it than last year. Returning lettermen, more kids turning, and more talent helped to enhance the season. Finding this out at the beginning of the season, Coach LePenske worked his kids hard, and the kids responded with many fine performances. Times have dropped drastically, and the record book was almost totally rewritten this year.

Having more boys turning out this year put more pressure on the front runners. Each swimmer had the challenge of getting ahead in each event. No one could be sure of a spot each week in a particular event.

Each swimmer set a goal for himself. For the free style swimmers it was to break one minute and qualify for the state meet in the 100 yard free style event. For the other strokes it was to qualify for state. The team goal was to send the two relays, the 200 yard medley and the 400 yard free style to state.

Track

Cinder and sawdust burners

This year, Coach Gary Eide had high hopes entering his second year as head coach of the track squad. He had almost all of his team back from last season, plus some sophomores and newcomers, who were pleasant surprises.

There were two new coaches to fill the staff this year. Assistant to Coach Eide was Bill Diambri, who worked with the varsity and Dale Gleason, who worked with the freshmen squad.

Coach Diambri had the fun of making the workouts for the first week of practice in March. He would always quip after a long workout, "We may not have any talent, but we'll be in shape!"

Coach Diambri's comment's spurred the cindermen to greater heights durinv the season, for they always had to prove him wrong.

Tumble turns, underwater work, stretch, pace, etc..became common place for 11 girls this fall when they hit the water as Hazen's first girls competitive swim team. Through their efforts, hardwork and enthusiasm, this young and inexperienced team came through with an impressive record for a new team.

Baseball

Hustle makes a team

The baseball team began practices on March 1 in anticipation of a long season. There were six nonleague games scheduled, as well as the regularly scheduled 16 league games.

The team set their sights high, with the North Puget Sound League Championship as their goal. Supplying some of the necessary leadership were nine senior lettermen from last season, Shawn Daly, Keith Allen, Jeff Sidebotham, Rick Seeley, Steve Walsh, Ken Walsh, Alex Benninghoven, Don Danielson, Jim Breslin, and two senior transfers, Bill Nobbs and Dennis O'Leary.

The gymnastics team started practice on February 2 in preparation for their first meet on March 13. The team was backed by last year's three state competitors, Dennis Curran, John Benthin, and Kevin Green.

The highlight of the season was the State Championship at the University of Washington on May 22-23, following the Regional Meet at Hazen the weekend before.

Having their own gym greatly helped the gymnastic turnouts. They no longer had to lug the equipment into the cafeteria for practice. Shortly after the season began, an overhead spotting belt was constructed in the gym, which was a great help to the trampolinists.

This season the gymnasts competed in the newly formed North Puget Sound Gymnastic League, consisting of Kent, Kentridge, Highline, Renton, and Hazen.

GIRLS GYMNASTICS - Matching strength with grace

Gymnastics is unique as a sport for it has six events for girls, each of which is an entire sport in itself. Each event requires as much training as any single other sport and makes difficult demands on the gymnast.

Floor exercise combines the elements and grace of dance with difficult tumbling moves. Balance Beam demands the same type of moves, only they are done four feet off the ground on a 4" width, which adds the elements of risk and balance. The uneven bars are probably the most spectacular event to watch as the girls must demonstrate strength, timing, and daring as they fly around and between the bars. Vault requires an explosive power, which must then be held through the entire stunt.

Tumbling and trampoline, though not a part of the all-around competition offer the opportunity to demonstrate tumbling, which is the most basic skill of gymnastics.

Students averaging a 3.2 G.P.A. or better for three quarters or more are automatically admitted to Torch. Honor Society officers elected at the beginning of the year were Frank Higgs, president, Henry Yee, vice president, and Carol Eckloff, secretary. These officers, along with their advisor, Mr. Longwell, formed a Torch Council to plan activities. In December, Torch decorated the cafeteria with a large Christmas tree. Also in the true spirit of giving, they sponsored a canned food drive for Seadrunar, a helping center for drug addicts in Seattle.

To get ideas for further activities, Torch wrote letters to other honor societies in the North Puget Sound League.

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish Club was open to all students interested in the Spanish speaking countries and who wanted to broaden their understanding of them.

One of their long range goals was a tour of Mexico as a group, if not this summer maybe next summer. Just before Christmas they sold candy canes as a moneymaking project for this trip.

During International week, Senora de Martinez danced in the large group room for the school. The Spanish Classes had their traditional Mexican dinner in the spring. President of the Spanish club was Roxy Benner.

During the year a small group of people known as Science Club worked on projects beyond those pursued in the classroom. They learned about different parts of animals, insects and other creatures. Another safari was planned during spring vacation. The groups advisor was Mr. Olason.

GERMAN CLUB

Guteh tag! was probably a very familiar saying around German Club this year. The club was designed to give the students a chance to learn about Germany, rather than just the language.

Started in January, the club was in the process of setting up cultural activities for it's members. Their big goal was to establish a student exchange with Germany.

Mark Robbins, their president, dictates to vice-president Stephanie Ellingson and Secretary Karen Barnard. Their advisor is Mr. Saltonstall.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club met regularly to offer its members an opportunity to further their skills and enjoy the game. The membership was small, so the meetings were informal with little structure.

This year's officers were: President Doug Brueske, Vice-President Paul Houser, Secretary Roger Hindes and Treasurer Wayne Rice. The King was Dave Yee and the Prince was John Walcott. Mr. Bolf was the advisor.

The Chess Club hopes that in future years strategy sessions and interschool competition can be planned, also one long term goal is to increase membership of the Chess Club.

DECA 3 & 4. . . PIPERS

The DECA Pipers were in third and fourth semester distributive education. They can look back on that great Pizza Party and the Blue Green and Gold pom-poms which they sold to earn money for their expences. The purpose of the club was to prepare students for active participation in the business world. President was Barb Gathmann, Vice President Robin Ragar, Secretary Candy Williams, and Treasurer Sherry Beckman. The other officers were reporter Don Moerer, and historian, Connie Monroe. They are supervised by Mr. Wrench.

VEHICLE CONTROL

The chief responsibility of the Vehicle Control Committee was to insure the adequacy of the Hazen parking lot.

This group of students, advised by Mr. Bryan, devised a set of rules concerning those students who drove to and from school.

Beginning in the fall the Vehicle Control Committee sold Hazen car stickers.

A proposed project for the future is to put gravel in all the dirt parking areas.

Those people holding offices in Vehicle Control were: Diane Pinney, President, Fran Bachmeiar, vice president; Mary Laird, secretary; and publicity coordinator, Chris Bostrom.

HAS

The Hazen Associated Sellers were first and second semester students in Retail Selling who were interested in serving the Hazen Student Body and the community.

The officers were: Kathy Jacobi, president, Ron McClure, vice-president, Laura Kittleson, secretary, and Marva Campbell, treasurer. Other officers included Historian, Lori Hoff, Parliamentarian, Pam Buck, and reporter, Tom Pritchard.

In the fall HAS sponsored a pumpkin carving contest. By the number of jack-o-lanterns in the display window, this project was certainly a success.

Besides a pumpkin carving contest, HAS also sold lollipops at a school dance.

Projects such as these continued throughout the year. In the spring, seven students from the class attended a leadership conference in Yakima.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Future Teachers of America consists of any freshmen through seniors who are interested in becoming teachers.

One of their major events was the Northwest Regional Conference in November. They also planned an overnight visitation to Western Washington State College in Bellingham.

F.T.A. had a Study Aid Program at Hazen as well as tutoring at the elementary schools.

Their big goal was the scholarship program for a graduating Senior. To earn money for this they sold Christmas candles and manned the concessions at after-game dances.

Their leaders are- Pres. Gary Lemenager, Vice Pres. Linda Schwab, Sec. Mary Jones, Treas. Henry Yee, and Historian Mary Rynning. They were advised by Miss Larson and Mr. Faris.

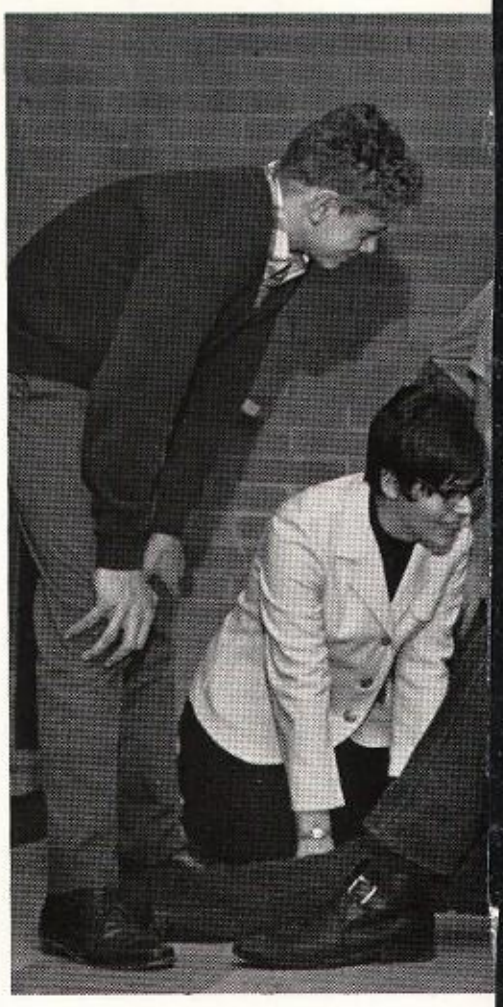
SELF DEFENSE

One of the more interesting activities at Hazen, was teaching the art of self defense though techniques and throws. Through defense they learned individual confidence from being able to defend themselves, and to make defensive movements a natural habit for future self protection. The enthusiam for learning new skills, was contaigous from the adviser, Mr. Rossman.



Front: Wayne Walcott, Marilyn Hudgins, Alan Brown, Gary Smith. Back: Bob Browning, Mr. Rossman, Jeri Forbes, Toni Boutwell, Laurie Bosworth, Yuan Simone.

LETTERMEN

At home basketball games, halftimes were made a little brighter this year when our jacketed lettermen made human targets for pennys while sweeping the floor. They also allowed themselves to be trampled underfoot while holding the ropes. Generally a service organization, Lettermen's Club performed these services, plus many others, for the student body.

Sponsoring the first big dance of the year, they brought the Springfield Rifle to Hazen, while head coaches of the varsity sports and their wives, chaperoned. The club set up standards and rules of conduct for all lettermen. With President, Don Danielson, Vice President, John Stark, and Secretary, Charlie Hickenbottom, and the advisor, Mr. Huckle, the club made a name for itself this year.

SAILING CLUB

"Capsized!?! Oops! Should have gone to Sailing Club to find out what I did wrong." Learning how not to capsize was not the only thing Sailing Club did. They learned the rules of competitive sailing and everything needed to become competent sailors.

Every weekend twelve foot El Toros were borrowed from the Renton Sailing Club to go out and practice on Lake Washington. On Fridays the club met with Mr. Throm to play a sailing game which challenged their sailing know-how and instructed them on new techniques.

Top to Bottom: Mr. Throm, Tom Kaufman, Rod Olson, John Hartsock, Adam Affek, Joyce Bristol, Marilyn Buchholtz, Tom Boydston, Greg Dickey.

HUNTING AND FISHING

Hunting and Fishing Club trained and certified ten members in hunting and firearms safety. John Nelson was president of the group, Ron Druce, vice president; Will Rohdi, executive secretary; and Monte Miller, treasurer. Parent sponsors, George C. Nelson and Don B. Rohdi helped Mr. Bryan, Mr. Dahlager, and Mr. Rolfe with the club.

In addition to participating in hunting and fishing activities in a sportsman like manner, the nimrods hope to instigate inter-school competition in rifle and pistol shooting.

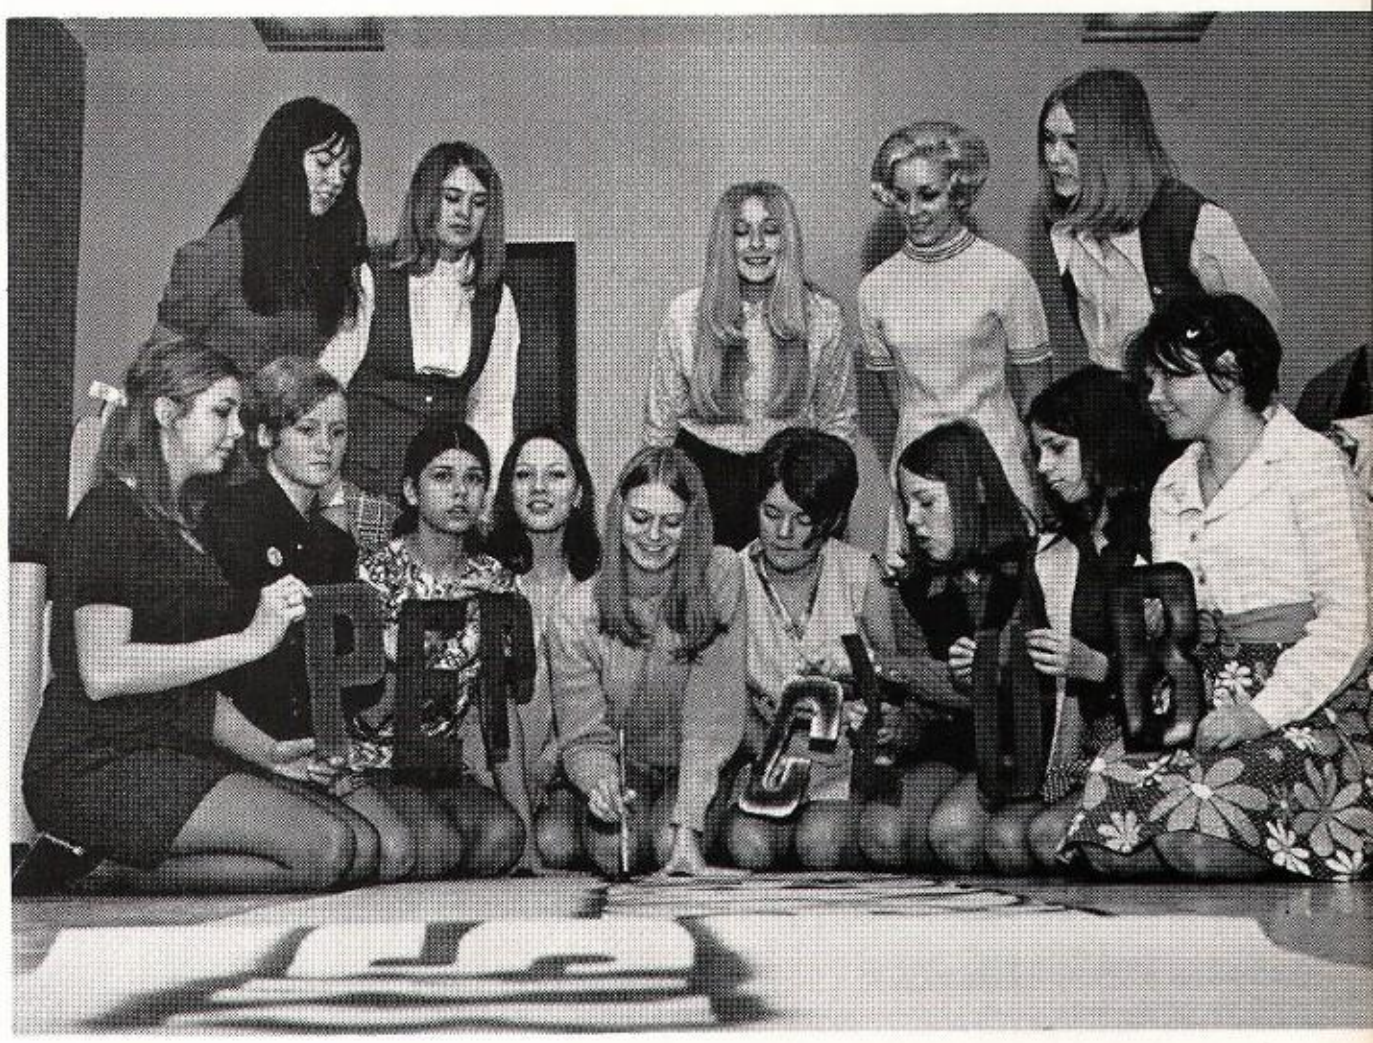
USHERS CLUB

"Do you know the way to San Jose?" Well, if you don't, the Ushers Club can show you.

This year's Ushers Club may not have been asked the way to San Jose but they did show parents around Hazen for Open House and P.T.A. meetings. Mr. Longwell's girls ushered at all the home football, basketball, wrestling, and gymnastic activities as well.

At the first meeting, Kathy Schwartz was elected President. She formed the club into three teams consisting of approximately eight members each. These teams rotated so that each team ushered at every third event. The teams each elected a captain. These were Cindy Sagen (also club Vice President), Marilyn Kaji, and Kathy Brunner.

The girls also ushered at all the concerts and performances that were presented at Hazen for the general public.



PEP CLUB

As with many clubs, it was the work of a few dedicated persons that made the club worthwhile. The purpose of the club was to promote school spirit and encourage sportsmanship and enthusiasm. Pep club made posters and publicized as many different sports and activities possible. Under the leadership of Pres. Judy Anderson, the members of the club worked hard and enjoyed doing small things that meant a lot to others.

DEBATE CLUB . . . SELF DEFENSE WITH WORDS

Resolved: Congress should make illegal: unilateral intervention in foreign countries.

Such was the resolution for this year's newly formed debate club. Taught as a class, the debate club was advised by Mr. Remlinger.

Under his direction, the students learned the techniques of effective oral communication.

Until the time of their first league debate in November, the team did extensive research on their topics. Even after the first debate, this research was continued. As Mr. Remlinger puts it, "Debate is about eighty per cent research and twenty per cent presentation."

DRAMA CLUB

Makers of Dreams. The Master Players can literally call themselves just that. Why? The students in and revolving around the drama club have a very specific dream to fullfill, a presentation at the Rention Drama Festival, entitled "Maker of Dreams." Under the direction of President Rob Green and Vice President Paula Morgan, the Players had hopes of getting three one act plays under production for Spring.

SPADES CLUB

"Spades' purpose is to promote the welfare of handicapped children through tolerance, understanding, friendship, and service"...this was the opinion of one Spades' member, and by their work this year they showed this to be true. Just before Halloween, the club travelled to the Rainier School for mentally retarded, where they made Halloween decorations and gave the patients the loving care young people can give. Plans were made to assist in giving mentally retarded children swim therapy. The year was spent in giving those less fortunate attention and care, which was needed so badly.

Officers leading this worth-while organization were, President, Jane Webb, Vice President, Sue Mc Fadden, and Secretary-treasurer, Gay Bristol. They, with the advisor, Mr. Henry, lead the group in the many activities they sponsored.

BLUE DOLPHINS

SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMING

The syncronized swimming club, the Blue Dolphins, started off with a bang with 90 students turning out the first day! It continued to be such a popular activity that the class was divided into two levels of ability. Both groups were to preform in the spring, but everyone including themselves were amazed when they put on a complete performance for the P.E. classes Nov. 7, 1969, and then for Hazen's P.T.A. Open House November 10, 1969. They were video taped for a program on Channel 9 T.V. in November and presented in December.

The group thinned down to about 42 swimmers. Syncronized Swimming was offered as a class for credit 2nd semester during 5th and 6th periods.

The club planned money raising projects to provide for the lighting equipment.

The officers were: President Mary Fisher, Vice President Beverly Beery, Secretary and Treasurer Maggie McDade, Historian Lora Lee Wolf, and they were advised by Miss Stechmann.

SKI CLUB

Ski Club was headed by President Dennis Richards. Their purpose was to present information on Equipment and to stimulate interest in the field of skiing.

Ski Club sponsored a ski swap and planned an exciting ski trip to Jackson Hole during spring vacation. Vice President Kevin Craig and Secretary Kathy Swartz worked hard to keep enthusiastic members informed.

TEAM'S MATES

Introduced to Hazen's Gymnastics Club this year were the Team's Mates. Under the guidence of Mr. Rossman, the purpose of this club was to help the coach at the gymnastics meets with scoring, holding up flash cards for scoring, and running errands. Officiers of the club were Pres. Laurie Bosworth; Vice Pres. Joan Merrill; Sec, Toni Boutwell.

Front: Candace Celigoy, Mr. Rossman, Laurie Bosworth. Back: Debbie Maucher, Toni Boutwell, Ginny Bauer, Judi Price, Cheryl Hunter.

ICE SKATING

A newly organized group this past year, the ice skating club, has managed to go skating every two weeks. The clubs purpose was to build better school spirit, develop coordination in skating and to have fun. In addition to becoming better ice-skaters, many learned to fall gracefully.

Their name, Ice Breakers, really fit the club. They not only broke the ice, but made many new friends in the process. Their advisor was Mrs. Baruffi—who was helped by Pres. Judy Ross, Vice pres. Cindy Petett, Sec. Marilyn Buchholtz, Treas. Dawn Renwick, and Historian Nanci Moffatt.

Senior Class a first for Hazen

"Seniors Rule!" . . . A new but welcome cry became a tradition this year when the first class of Hazen Seniors entered the halls in September. Being the first Senior class had its privileges, but along with these privileges came many decisions to be made and work to be done. Decisions concerning Senior party, graduation, Senior Ball, and other Senior activities were tackled by Senior Board, headed by class President, Vicki Lombardini. The Parent Planning Committee, chaired by Mrs. Stan Jones, assisted Senior Board with arrangements for Senior Ball and Senior Party. This committee also made sure Senior parents were involved.

Senior Power Week, held in December, gave Seniors a chance to vote on Senior Party, announcements, and other details of Seniorhood. During the week, buttons appeared saying "Senior Power" and the profits from these buttons went toward Senior Ball. At two assemblies, one in October and the other in January, Seniors were informed of the ideas and decisions that had been made.

Seniors leave high school with a sigh of relief, along with the excitement of graduation and the loneliness of parting. But looking back, one might sum it all up in thinking, "For Once in My Life"

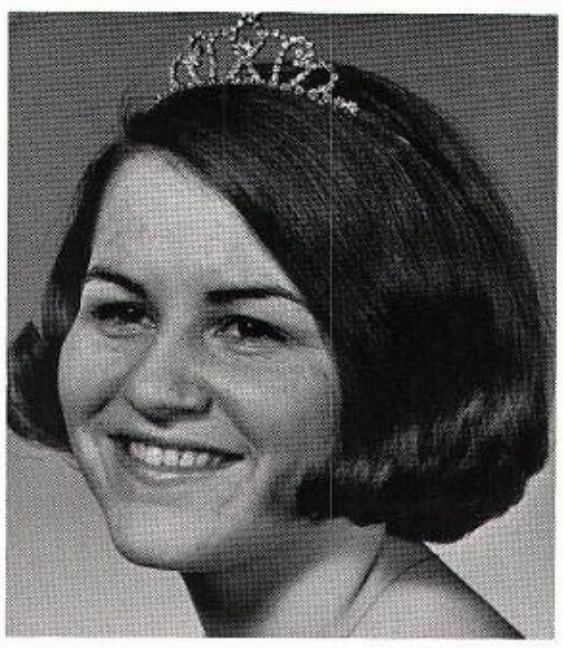
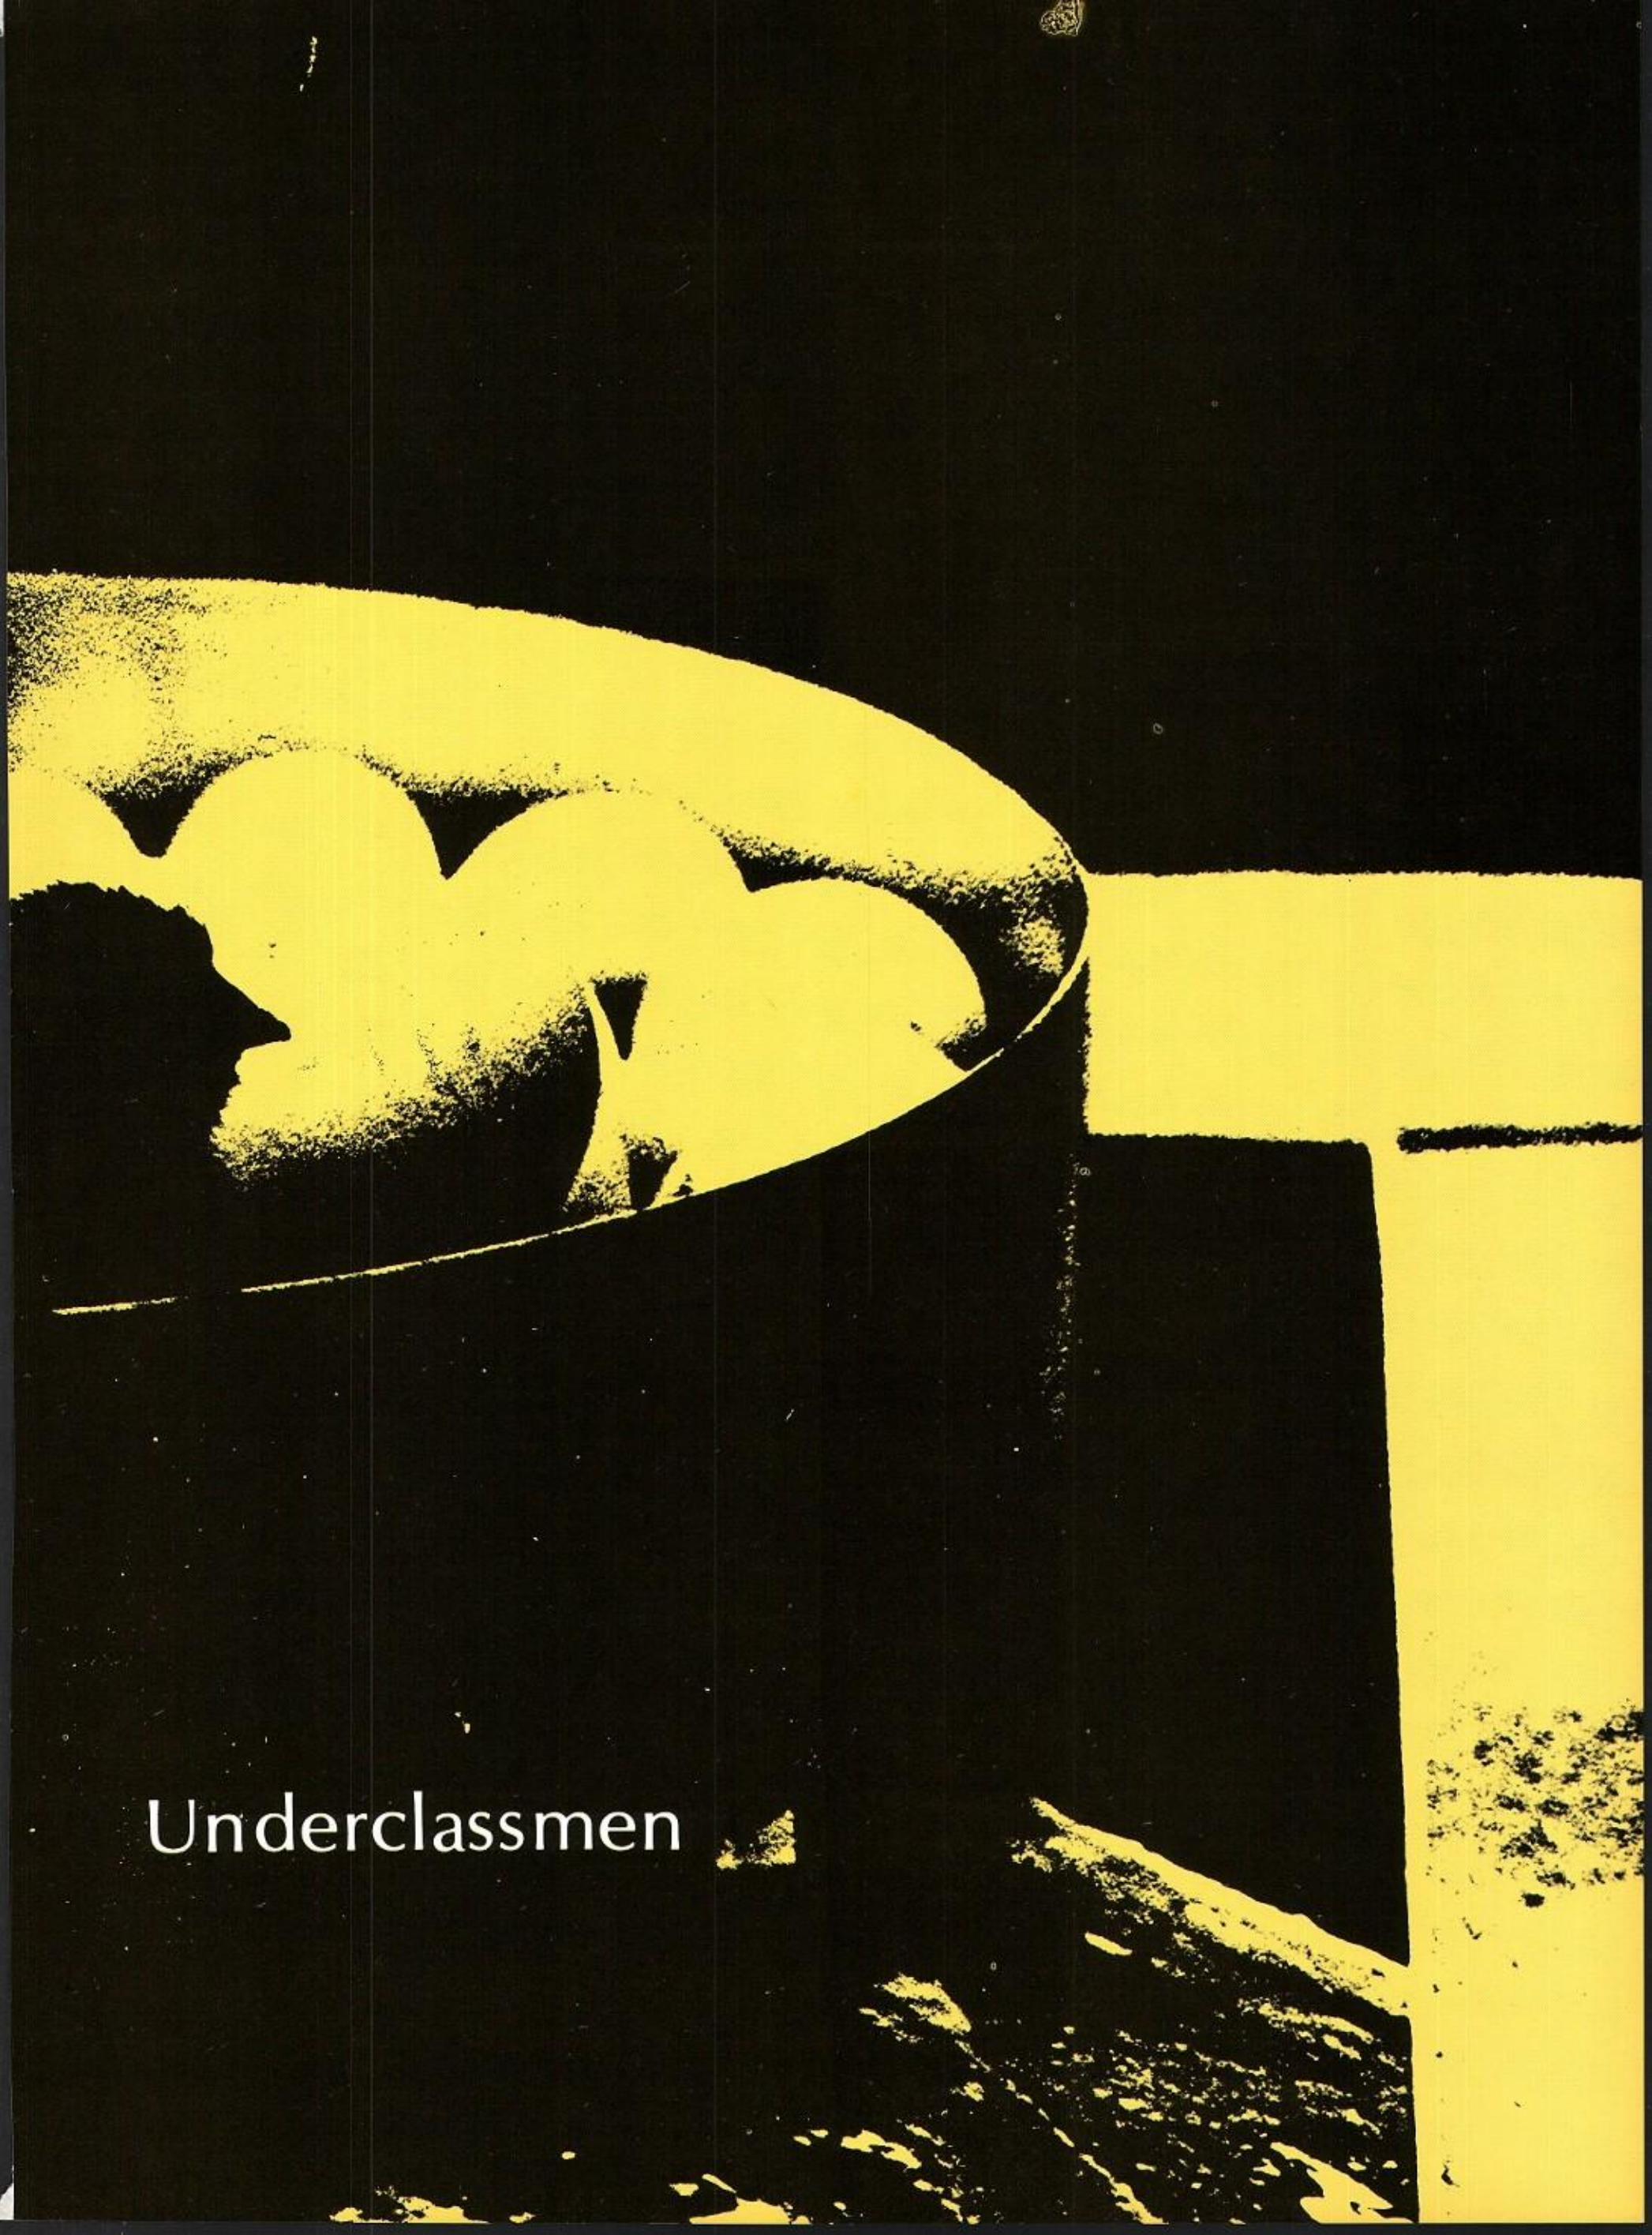
Princess Gena Kime

Princess Vicki Lombardini



Princess Jan Theilbar

Anticipation of the school's first formal dance reached its peak on the night of May 16th at 8:30 and continuing until 11:30. Located in the Olympic Bowl, at Seattle's Olympic Hotel, the first Senior Ball was the culmination of planning which had begun the previous June with the selection of the site. The Ballroom comfortably held over 250 people and was regally decorated in red and white. Refreshments were catered by the hotel. Presiding over the ball was the Senior Queen Jeanne Rothrock, and her princesses, Jan Baltz, Gena Kime, Vicki Lombardini, and Jan Theilbar, who were elected by the class early in March. From the Senior's homerooms nominations were made and 13 finalists were announced. A final vote was taken and the court, consisting of a queen and four princesses was announced. The identity of the queen was kept confidential until the week of the ball.



Underclassmen

Junior Class

The Junior Class was extremely active during the year under the leadership of Junior Class President, Debbie Austin. Working with Debbie was the Junior board consisting of Karen Hash, Vice President, Marianne Beattie, Rod Olin, Debbie Hayden, Dirk Henningson, Jim Jacobson, Steve Willenborg, JoRene Wright, Craig Johnson, and Pam Rothe.

In order to raise money for their Prom, the Juniors held a car wash on September 15 and 16 which raised $71.00.

Junior Prom was held on November 8, 1969 in the Hazen Cafeteria. The color scheme was lavender, silver, and pink, and the theme was "Cherish." Six finalists were elected by the home rooms and the announcement was made on November 3 at an assembly. Pam Kraft was crowned Junior Princess on November 8.

Debbie Austin, class president

Miss Rolstad, Junior Class Counselor

There were plans to have a switch dance which was very confusing to a spectator because the boys dressed as girls and the girls dressed as boys.

The last event planned for this year was an Outgoing Assembly, a tribute to the Seniors, and would be held close to the last day of school.

When the Lonach came out, the Juniors realized that they were finally SENIORS.

Sophomore Class

Relieved of last year's "Frosh" status the Sophomore class found new ways to contribute to school spirit.

Even before the year began the Sophomore Board was meeting to plan activities for the coming year. In late August they organized and carried out the Freshman orientation.

In early November the class of "72" sponsored a KOL Noonie for the whole school.

Class spirit continued to come on strong, not only during football season but during basketball season as well.

In the spring a surprising number of Sophs turned out for the track meets.

The Sophomore Board continued working on more plans for class activities. As always the theme of their endeavors stressed student involvement.

One of their plans was a snow party, which met with great enthusiasm by the students.

Another plan was a fund-raising carnival to which all of Renton's elementary schools would be invited.

This was a landmark year since most Sophomores could finally get their driver's licences, an event which they had long anticipated. Unfortunately, there was just not enough room for every Sophomore in the Driver Education classes.

In spite of this frustration, many Sophomores were finally finding some class that held their interest.

More job opportunities opened up for them because this was the year that many Sophomores passed that important 16th birthday.

Before they could get organized as a class, the Freshmen had to get acquainted with the new enviroment, But Frosh spirit shone through when they won the first competition cheer at a pep assembly using the cheerleader's spirit sticks. Selection of the board started the year officially during second quarter. Bob Gray was elected to lead the 455 member Frosh class and the 14 member board.

To aid in the process of choosing some fund-raising project, they wrote to eleven other schools in the area and asked for ideas. Only one responded, with the suggestion of a magazine drive...a lot of help since at that time our S.B.A. was doing just that.

To give parents and friends the opportunity to see the Frosh basketball team, the board made the request to hold some of the games in the evening. A small admission was charged to earn money for the class. The class proposed to give the in coming freshmen an earlier start, by making plans to hold the elections for Freshmen Representative at McKnight Middle School.

Administration bridges the gap

The open society, the unrestricted access to knowledge, the unplanned association of men for its furtherance--these are what may be a vast, complex, ever-growing, ever-changing, ever more specialized and expert technological world, nevertheless a world of human community.

With continued community support, an outstanding school system continued to develop.

The primary problem confronting educators is that of preparing the youth of today for the unknown tomorrow.

Bridging the gap between the educational goals of the community and those on the front line of education were their elected representatives, the School Board, consisting of Mrs. Myrtle Clymer, Bill Johnson, Mrs. Barbara Lally, Roger Lewis, and Dr. Jack Priebe.

Dr. Earl Hobbs served his fourth year as superintendent of the district.

Meanwhile, up in the highlands, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Suzick, and Mr. Hash wrestled with the administrative problems inherent in establishing a new high school.

The teaching staff . . .

Under constant pressure to cover a certain body of information within a prescribed amount of time, there is seldom a chance for us to get to know those men and women who contribute to our education.

We wondered if we asked how they really felt about their profession if we might come nearer to knowing as much about them as they know about us.

We use the quotations anonymously; their placement does not necessarily indicate their source.

How to Lose Fat a Pound a Day on a Full Stomach

Do Just These Two Simple Things

Fat Melts Away

Science has made important discoveries in fat reduction. The average fat person can now rip off fat a pound a day—four to seven pounds every week!—on a full stomach, with never a hungry moment. Thus it is foolish now to stay fat.

This is what you do: Take a teaspoonful ordinary Jad salts in a glass of water a half hour before breakfast every morning. This reduces moisture-weight instantly. Also cleanses the system of the waste matter and excess toxins that most fat people have, and banishes puffiness and bloat.

Then do this about eating. FILL YOUR STOMACH—eat your fill—of lean meats, vegetables like spinach, cauliflower, cabbage, tomatoes, etc., and lots of salads. Eat a lot. Eat all you can hold. Don't go hungry a minute! Cut down on butter, sweets and desserts, bread.

That's all you do. Fat seems to melt away. The coarse lines of overweight give way to the refined ones of slenderness. You lose as much as a pound a day. You feel better than for years. For in this treatment you achieve two important results. The Jad Salts clear your system of toxins. The diet takes off fat with food that turns into energy instead of weight.

If you're tired of being embarrassed by fat, try this way. You'll be glad that you did. You can get Jad Salts at any drug store.

Note particularly—the salts are urged purely as a poison-banishing agent—not as a reducing. The change in food does the work.

THIS IS THE HOUR FOR COMMUNITY...

For laughing-crying hoping-achieving giving-taking reaching out-joining in for being concerned

The end, and yet another beginning...

EDITOR'S NOTE

A mere picture book, or a production reflecting the past year at Hazen? LONACH 1970 was an attempt to capture an attitude relating hopefully, to as many students as possible. Unfortunatley, this attitude may be reflected mainly in the concerns of the editor. In this attempt, I tried to utilize contemporary concerns in the hope that someone might stop to think about what has been said.

If any idea caused you to pause and reflect for a moment, I will have successfully produced the type of annual today's high school student deserves.

Besides the experience gained in producing an annual, I observed the growth of a responsible working staff through the efforts of an efficient concerned advisor. A strong foundation has been laid, resulting in higher quality future productions.

Finally, if you feel this attempt a failure, may I suggest that the only justified criticism is that which is followed by the better solution.

Sincerely, T. McCombs

SPECIFICATIONS

The 1970 LONACH of Hazen High School, Renton, Washington was printed by the offset lithographic process by the American Yearbook Company in Visalia, California.

The stock on which the book was printed is 80 True White paper; endsheet stock is 33 Goldtone.

The cover, by S.K. Smith Co., is Craftline Embossed in ochre with an ivory overtone, Cordova 203 grained, with metalay and silkscreen processes.

Basic layout design was by the staff.

Basic type style is Optima and Optima with Italics.

Idea for photo essay courtesy of the Red Cross pamphlet "Somewhere Between Any Man and Every Man There is a Place Called Community".

A community is like a ship; everyone ought t be prepared to take the helm. Henrik Ibse
